The London Gazette

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 26. to Saturday July 30. 1720.

Naples, July 9, N. S.

CAptain Saunders, whom Admiral Byng had ſent to Sicily, to look to the Imbarkations there, is returned hither, and has given the Admiral an Account, that the Tranſports having on board the Piemonteſe Troops are ſailed for Sardinia, and the Wind having been fair for them, it is not doubted they are arrived at Cagliari. The ſecond Imbarkation of the Spaniſh Troops was in ſuch Forwardneſs when Captain Saunders came away, that he reckons they might ſail Yeſterday for Barcelona; from whence the firſt Tranſports were daily expected back at Palermo, in order to take on board the reſt of the Spaniſh Troops. Admiral Byng having ordered the Britiſh Men of War which are employed to convoy the Tranſports to Spain and Sardinia, to proceed to England after they have performed thoſe Services, has appointed Captain Scott to remain till further Order in theſe Seas, with only three Men of War of 50 Guns each and one of 30.

Genoa, July 23. On the 21ſt arrived here, in a Britiſh Ship from Palermo, the Prince of Heſſe Caſſel with ſeveral other German Officers, and with them ſome other Ships and Barks that have brought hither his Regiment conſiſting of about 1600 Men, which landed Yeſterday, and in a Day or two will proceed for Milan, whence will come the Regiment of Lucini to imbark on the ſame Tranſports for Sicily. Count Ottayano, who is to go to Sardinia, to receive that Kingdom in the Emperour's Name, and deliver it to the King of Sardinia's Miniſter appointed for that Purpoſe, is come hither; and two of the King of Sardinia's Gallies being arrived, they will depart with him ſo ſoon as the Wind comes fair.

Berne, July 26. The General Diet of the thirteen Cantons lately met at Frawenfelt being broke up, and the Deputies of Baſil, Soleure, Fribourg, Schaffhauſen and Apenzel returned home, thoſe of the eight old Cantons continue aſſembled at the ſame Place, and make a kind of ſecond Diet. Nothing has paſſed in the general One worthy of Notice, except a Deputation ordered for Werdenberg, to exhort that Community to take the accuſtomed Oath of Fidelity to the Canton of Glaris, its Sovereign; and we hear that upon the Arrival of two Counſellours on the Part of all the Cantons, the People of the County of Werdenberg have at laſt ſubmitted and taken the Oath accordingly without any Reſerve, Condition, or Diſorder. The Deputies of Berne being returned hither from Porentru have made Report of their Commiſſion to the Sovereign Council, and as the City of Bienne is not ſatisfied with ſome Articles of the Accommodation made with the Biſhop concerning the late Differences between him and the ſaid City, a Deputation from the latter has been here to deſire ſome Modification of thoſe Articles, which Matter will be conſidered as ſoon as the Harveſt is over. A ſecond violent Storm of Hail having lately happened in the Pays de Vaud, between Lauſanne and Vevay, and cauſed very great Damage in thoſe Parts, this Canton has ordered 2000 Crowns in Money, and Corn, to be diſtributed among the poor Sufferers, beſides a Collection to be made for their Relief throughout that Part of the Country.

Yeſterday

(Price Three Half Pence.)

Yeſterday being the Anniverſary of the great Victory obtained in 1712 over the five Catholick Cantons by the Army of Berne, it was obſerved here with the accuſtomed Solemnity, Vollies of Cannon firing all the Day, and at Night there were Fire works and other Demonſtrations of Joy, in Memory of ſo great an Event.

Paris, July 30, N. S. An Arrêt was publiſhed To-Day, that has made a very great Augmentation on the Money: The Crowns, which are but of three Livres intrinſick Value, were on their being new-coyned made current at ſix Livres, afterwards raiſed by Arrêts to nine Livres, and by ſeveral Reductions were to be brought down to ſix Livres again the firſt of next Month; but by this Arrêt of To-Day they are advanced to 12 Livres, and are to paſs current at that Price till the firſt of September, when they are to begin to fall, and by the firſt of November next are to be at ſix Livres: The other Coyns of Silver are to riſe and fall at the ſame Time and in the ſame Proportion.

Paris, Aug. 3. On the 30th paſt an Ordinance of the King was publiſhed, whereby the Stock-Jobbers were forbid after the 1ſt Inſtant to negotiate their Papers at any other Place but at the Exchange, which His Majeſty has eſtabliſhed for that Purpoſe in the Garden of the Hôtel de Soiſſons. Divers Regulations have been made on that Account, amongſt which there is one which forbids all Footmen, Workmen, and ſuch like Perſons to enter that Place, under Pain of Impriſonment; and to prevent all Diſorders, there are placed at each Door two Swiſs in the King's Livery, and eight Archers commanded by two Exempts and one Lieutenant. The Marqueſs de Mauſevrier Langeron is gone from hence to his Country Seat, in order to proceed from thence to the Court of Spain. The Dutcheſs of Vantadour, who has been very ill, is in a fair of way of Recovery, and on the 1ſt Inſtant the King went to pay her a Viſit, and ſupped with her. The Duke D'Aumont is very ill of the Gout in his Stomach.
